Sex and Relationships Policy

Consultation

The school has reviewed its Sex and Relationships policy to support the way it teaches pupils about these important issues.

On Wednesday the 13th of February at 5:00pm, the school plan to hold a parents consultation to inform parents and carers about the policy. This session will look at the vocabulary used in each year group, the scheme of work to underpin teaching and when we introduce concepts such as sex, relationships, reproduction and puberty. The session will be led by Mr Dooris and our PSHE coordinator, Miss Birch.

EYFS Resources

Our Early Years are starting a project on being 'On Safari'. This will involve them looking at various animals that we find in this country and abroad. If any children have grown out of the little plastic animal toys you could donate to the school, they would be gratefully received.

Thank you
